Junior Chamber of Commerce Sponsors Big July Celebration

Young Business Men's Organization Boosts the Amador Valley

Although barely one year old, the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce has been the source of inspiration in putting across the Fourth of July celebration this year.

Early in the spring the juniors recognized the opportunity that

First definite steps were taken on the night of Tuesday, May 23, when a group of civic leaders convened to discuss the celebration. This group became the general committee in charge of the event with Jerome Arendt as the head, and to him must go the credit for the splendid organization which made the celebration possible in so short a time.

At that first meeting, doubts

was available to Pleasanton of putting on such a celebration. With the finest horse racing track in the country lying idle, with the abundance of splendid horse flesh being raised and trained in Amador Valley, the young men began talking and planning among themselves as to the possibility of the celebration. As their plans took shape, they realized that more than anything else the whole community must share in the glory of the affair.

John Ruppel, Secretary J. C. C.

were raised by the wiser heads present. Time was short, and those unfamiliar with the previous work of the juniors feared to undertake the venture in so short a time without a firm foundation of confidence that the celebration could be put across.

Hard Work and Community Spirit Assures Pleasanton that Her Celebration Will Be Large Success

Pleasanton's first Fourth of July celebration since way back in 1908 will start Saturday evening. The celebration this year is to last for three days.

Starting with the Kiddies' Parade, presentation of the Goddess of Liberty and the street dance stinting in giving of their energy and their time to the cause. Arendt has been tireless in his unceasing work in directing the preparations for the celebration.

With Arendt on the general committee were Crawford Letham, Charles Graham, Lee Wells, William Graham, Bruce Pickard, T. H. Silver, Andrew Greve, Peter Christesen, William Hall, John Ruppel, Andrew Jorgensen, J. J.

Saturday evening, and ending on Monday afternoon with the last exciting horse race as the sun sinks over the western hills, the whole celebration is due to and the direct result of the hard working committees that have labored many weary weeks on the preparations for the event.

Under the direction of the general committee, with Jerome Arendt as its chairman, many of the townspeople have been un-

Miss Doris Grana will reign over the Pleasanton Fourth of July celebration as Goddess of Liberty. Miss Grana won this honor as a result of a popularity

KIDDIES' PARADE TO BE FEATURE

Without hesitation many judges proclaim that the Kiddies Parade, which starts off the Pleasanton Fourth of July celebration Saturday evening, will be the most interesting feature of the entire three-day celebration.

Children from all over Amador Valley will take part in the line of march. Each will be in costume of some sort or have with him or her a favorite pet. Prizes are to be awarded to those having the best costume and get-ups.

The parade is to be divided into four divisions. One will be a walking section. This section will include all those on foot, either with or without a pet. Three prizes will be awarded in this group.

Another section will be the mounted division. A third will include those in wheeled vehicles. Three prizes will be awarded in each of these groups.

The fourth division of the parade is to be known as the group section. Children in this division will be in groups, each group representing some sort of tableau or idea. Three prizes will be awarded in this section also.

The variety and novelty of the different costumes and get-ups will be astounding, officials of the parade say. To the parents especially, the children's ingenuity in acting their parts in the parade brings endless joy.

Much of the success of the parade will have to be accredited to the work of the two women who have been in charge of the event. Mrs. S. E. Huddleston and Mrs. Hugo Radbruch have been at work for nearly a month, not only on the organization of the parade, but also helping the children with their costumes.

This type of parade is no new thing, even in the Pleasanton region. A similar event has been a feature of the Livermore Rodeo celebration for many years. So successful has this sister city of Pleasanton become in putting Miss Orloff, Miss Escobar, and Miss Rosa will share in the celebration with Miss Grana in the positions of attendants to the goddess. The celebration will officially open Saturday evening with the presentation of the goddess and her attendants to the public. Following the presentation the four girls will review the kiddies parade, which immediately precedes the street dance.

The next appearance of the goddess will be made Monday morning in the Fourth of July parade. She and her attendants will have a prominent part in the parade, riding on an appropriate float, especially prepared for the occasion by the Pleasanton Women's Improvement Club.

Miss Grana's victory in the contest was made possible by a sudden last-minute rallying of her supporters. Miss Orloff stepped into the lead at the beginning of the contest and remained better than five hundred votes ahead of the field up until the last day. At the very beginning Miss Grana started low, with both Miss Escobar and Miss Rosa ahead of her. It soon revolved, however, into a race between the two leaders, with Miss Orloff unquestionably in the lead and conceded the victory by many.

Miss Grana, however, won the final victory by her amazing last-minute rise. She has always been one of the most popular of Pleasanton's fair sex. She is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Grana, of Pleasanton. She was raised in the Amador Valley city, having graduated from both the grammar and the high schools in Pleasanton.

over their kiddies' parade, that quite a bit of interest has been aroused in determining whether or not Pleasanton can outdo Livermore in this respect.

National Song

JULY FOURTH

Our hearts are the hearts of the yeoman
Who stood with such resolute mien,
And bullet for bullet gave foemen
That day upon Lexington Green;
Our praises are still for the freemen
Who signed and wrought tyranny's knell;
And still is our glee for the gleemen
Who rang the old Liberty Bell!

We never have fought with the craven
For wrong; though it stood on a throne;
We never have flocked with the raven;
Our bird is the eagle alone!
Our banner, may none wave above it
Atop of the tapering spars,
Is the red, white and blue-how we love it-
Its stripes and its spangles of stars!

HOLD ALLEGED BAD CHECK ARTIST ON THEFT

Upon motion by Assistant District Attorney Harry Styles, charges of passing bad checks against Carlos Abarito, colored, was dismissed in the Centerville justice court Tuesday afternoon and a charge of petty theft placed against the defendant.

Abarito pleaded guilty to the petty theft charge and will come up for sentence before Judge Allen G. Norris next Tuesday. Insufficient evidence led to dismissal of the felony charge.

DELEGATE RETURNS

Mrs. M. L. Fournier returned Friday from attending the Native Daughters' state convention held last week in Merced. Her sister, Mrs. Gladys Noce, was chosen as head of the organization at the convention.

Check Unsigned And No Address

Someone has mailed the Register a check for two dollars in payment for a year's subscription. The check reached us on June 22. It was mailed at the Niles post-office, but was written on the Bank of America, Centerville. The check was unsigned, and the envelope had no return address, and we are at a loss to know from whom the payment came. Maybe the person who sent the check will read this. If so, kindly communicate with the Register.

GROWERS FACE SMALL RETURNS FOR APRICOTS AS PRICES ARE ANNOUNCED

TOWNSHIP SCOUTS WILL GATHER AT CAMP JULY 25-31

Southern Alameda Scout Executive to Direct Activities

Seven days in camp for Boy Scouts of the Washington township, including troops in Niles, Centerville, Newark, Irvington and Decato, will be held July 25-31 at Camp Dimond of the Oakland Area Council, O. W. Ebright, chairman of the activities of the Washington Township district, declared yesterday.

"These dates have been reserved especially for a camp period for local Boy Scouts under the direction of a troop leader from each of the participating units," he said.

This is the first time on record that local boy scouts have gone as a group to Camp Dimond for a special program of their own under the direction of the southern Alameda county scout executive, Irving P. Beesley.

The seven-day camp period will be absolutely free to both scouts and leaders, Beesley made known in announcing the program. A corps of experts in various crafts, including Beesley as director of games and campfires, Bruce Boyer, American Red Cross life saving instructor; Al Currier, craft work and Indian lore; Robert Taylor, nature counselor, will be on duty at Dimond Camp to assist with the program.

Scouts will bring their own food and blankets, according to Ebright, and will cook their own meals to effect the saving in the usual camp fees.

On Sunday afternoon, July 31, a special court of honor will be held in Camp Dimond amphitheater to award badges of rank earned either before or during the camp period. All scouts and leaders who do not attend the week's encampment are invited by Ebright to come up over the weekend to participate in the gala Saturday evening campfire and the court of awards which will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday afternoon.

NILES FIRE DEPT. CHECKS GRASS BLAZE

The Niles Fire Department was called out Thursday of last week to check a grass fire which had gotten out of control at the old Harry Tyson place near Niles. The fire threatened several buildings on the ranch, but was extinguished by the firemen before serious damage was done.

FISHING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth and son, Vernon, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Bonde and son, and A. A. Siebert, of Oakland, enjoyed a fishing trip on the Mokelumne River Sunday. Three limits of trout were caught by the party.

Lower Scale Than Last Year to Result In Drying Fruit

With apricot picking in full swing this week in Washington township, growers are facing considerable lower prices for the fruit than that received last year, according to the prices announced last week by the buyers.

The announcement of lower prices than last year and the fact the canneries are planning on only light packs this year will undoubtedly lead to much of the fruit being dried. Many of the growers about Centerville are planning on drying almost all their crops, while others in the township are expected to follow suit. E. A. Ellsworth, of Niles, announced this week that he already contracted for sale of two hundred tons of fruit to the Schuckl cannery. He also plans on drying a considerable part of this year's crop although not as much as last year.

Three scales of prices are being offered by the buyers for the various grades of fruit. A price of $25 per ton for ten to the pound or large, and $12.50 for No. 1's and 14's with only ten per cent of No. 2's accepted. This means a price of $25 for the larger size, with the seller being allowed to include ten per cent of the No. 2's, for which he will receive $12.50 per ton.

A price of $20 per ton will be paid for 12 to the pound or larger and $10 per ton for 13's and 14's, with only ten per cent of the No. 2's included. For the fourteen to the pound or above, a price of $17.50 per ton is offered.

The various firms are selecting one of the price scales with which to buy the fruit, and the growers are offered the option of choosing the firm with which they will deal.

The prevailing price for apricot pits this year will be $25.

Reports coming from the growers say that this year's crop is of finer quality than that of last year, much of the fruit being of the No. 1 grade. The growers realize $25 a ton from 12's and larger last year, with a premium that brought $35 per ton if the deliveries were 100 per cent of 10's to the crop. The average for the crop was about $29.50 per ton.

It is feared by the growers that the price to be paid for dried fruit also will be much lower this year than last.

Endeavor Members Guests of Pleasanton Organization

Sixteen members of the Niles Christian Endeavor were guests of the Pleasanton Christian Endeavor Sunday evening. Everyone joined in an hour of lively discussion, after which the remainder of the evening was devoted to games. Delicious refreshments were served to the gathering.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman and son, all of Niles, and Miss Winnie Azavedo, of Mission San Jose, returned this week from a week's vacation spent in the Yosemite valley.

Register for fine job printing.

M. J. OVERACKER, POPULAR RANCHER, WILL OPPOSE RALPH RICHMOND

As the dead line of filing candidates for the county and state elections to be held in August approached Saturday noon, M. J. Overacker, well-known Washington township man, came forward as a candidate for the position of county supervisor for the first district now held by Ralph V. Richmond, of Niles.

Rumors that Walter Block, of Livermore, also was planning to run against Richmond were quieted when Overacker was the only man to file.

Overacker is widely known throughout Washington township and southern Alameda county, coming from a prominent pioneer family in this territory. The candidate has lived in Washington township all his life and was educated in local schools. He has been engaged in ranching for many years near Mission San Jose. He is at present serving as president of the Washington Union high school board of trustees, having capably filled that position for several years.

It is expected that Overacker will draw the support of a large number of voters in this district who have expressed dissatisfaction with the services of the incumbent.

NILES SCOUT CHARTER IS PRESENTED AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

LETTER REVIVES HISTORY OF TOWNSHIP

Interesting bits of information concerning early Washington township history and the early history of the Township Register was offered in a letter received recently by the Register from H. L. Chase, 937 San Bruno Avenue, San Francisco, who lived in this locality many years ago.

In enclosing a money order renewing his subscription to the Register and ordering several copies containing a detailed account of the recent Homecoming affair held at Irvington, Chase writes:

"I attended Washington College for four years, 1887, 1888, 1889, and 1890. You will notice my name in your list of old timers gathered recently at Irvington in memory of Washington College, Curtner Seminary, Anderson Academy, and old Washington Corners, now named Irvington. I probably knew more people there than any other person now living. I came there with my parents as a two-year-old child in 1874 and on that account I take a deep interest in the affair, and feel that you have shown progressiveness in giving a detailed account of the event.

"The paper you are now publishing was formerly published at Irvington and the Water brothers took it to Niles. I was well acquainted with Mr. Thibels, Mr. Eagle, Mr. Calkins, and E. B. Thompson, the various publishers covering a long term of years, prior to the time the paper was taken to Niles. I thank you."

Yours truly,
H. L. CHASE.

JUDGE ON VACATION

J. A. Silva has been absent from his duties as justice of the peace in the Niles justice court during the week, enjoying a week's vacation. Judge Allen G. Norris handled the business of the Niles court Tuesday afternoon.

Civic Body Adjourns Until Second Monday In September

Official presentation of the charter of the Niles Boy Scout Troop No. 2 was made to the Niles Chamber of Commerce at their regular luncheon Monday noon. The charter was presented by Reverend E. G. Brinkmeyer, member of the committee in charge of the troop organized early this year.

Other members of the committee are George Bonde, George Rose, and Ray Peterson.

A motion was passed by the chamber to accept the charter and assume sponsorship of the new scout group as they have sponsored and assisted Troop No. 1. It also was decided the charter, appropriately framed, be placed on display in the window of Jones & Ellsworth, First street, Niles, where it can be seen by the public.

Considerable discussion took place at Monday's meeting concerning the public trading and patronizing home merchants and industry. Harvey Braun stated the opinion that not enough trading at home was being done by Niles people, and that a greater effort should be made to stimulate business at home in order to create a more prosperous town.

It was the belief of W. B. Kirk that several of the home town merchants are not keeping abreast with the times in the prices charged for their goods, thereby causing consumers to buy in other markets where the prices are cheaper. H. L. Scott took exception to this view and assured the chamber that many of the Niles merchants sold their goods at prevailing market prices. He pointed out that many people from all over Washington township come to Niles to do their buying because of this asserted fact.

After a communication had been read from a citizens' committee in San Francisco asking the Niles chamber to endorse the measure for repeal of the Wright act, to come up before California voters at the November election,

'ARMY' GUNS SIN 'NAVY' HOPES IN NILES BALL CLASH

Smith Stars With Bat In Twelve to Eleven Victory

With full colors flying the "navy" baseball nine of the Washington township American Legion post went down to a 12 to 11 defeat before the shell of the "army" tossers in a seven-inning contest on the Niles grammar school grounds Sunday morning.

Not until the final inning was the battle for the township baseball championship decided, when the "army" men came to the bat trailing by one counter and tallied a brace of runs that gave them the victory.

George Smith, who performed behind the bat for the "army," proved to be the "big gun" whose cannonading perforated the seamen's hopes and sent their ship to the bottom. With two men populating the sacks in the sixth canto, Smith landed on one of Pitcher's Bristow's slants and rifled it far over the field's head for a four-base clout. Again in the last half of the seventh he strode to the platter with Dale Carithers and Matt Mathiesen resting on third and second sacks respectively, and drove out a screaming single which brought in the two winning runs.

Both teams opened hostilities with a barrage of counters in the first frame, the "navy" chasing five runs across the plate in their half while the "army" responded with a like number. Both were held scoreless in the second canto, but the "navy" dented the plate for three in the third, with the "army" counting one. In the sixth the salts accounted for three more, and the doughboys came through with four, to still hold a one-run disadvantage.

Although errors were numerous on both sides, the clash was greatly enjoyed by the large group of township fans present. Several of the players demonstrated talent at handling the horsehide and also at performing effectively with the willow. Rounding about the diamond at a lively pace resulted in several complaints of "churleyhorses" among the performers, but everyone came through the fray with no severe injuries reported from either belligerents.

Bob Vieux and "Skip" Edinger were outstanding with the bat for the "navy," while Dale Carithers scintillated in center field for the "army." E. D. Bristow worked six innings on the slab for the seamen and caused ten of the enemy to whiff the air in vain. George Burr hurled the last inning. Lee Stivers did the receiving for the "navy."

Jack Vieux, Elmer Nordby, and Tony Silva alternated on the hillcock for the "army" with Vieux baffling the salts during the time he performed.

As a result of the enthusiasm displayed in the diamond spot, the Washington township legion post is planning to organize a team in which all forces will be combined to play other legion teams in this section of Alameda county. Enough baseball ability appeared in Sunday's contest to lead the legion members to believe a formidable nine can be put into the field against rival nines.

The dinner won by the doughboys in Sunday's game will be served some time next month.

The lineup Sunday was, for "Army": J. Vieux, Silva, and Nordby, p.; Smith, c.; Nordby, Vieux, 1 b.; Matt Mathiesen, 2 b.; E. L. Yarbrough, ss.; Molter, ss.; Bettencourt, 1 f.; Tony Machado, 1 f.; Carithers, c.

"Navy": Bristow, Burr, Stivers, c.; Edinger, 1 b.; Ebright, 2 b.; Dassel, ss.; Vieux, 3 b.; Maciel, Dutra, 1 f.; Macriotti, cf.; Sullivan, Burr, 1 f.

Environment, Climate and Industries Make City Best In State

When the dozen or more thoroughbreds dash past the grand stand and bleachers thronged with people at the Pleasanton driving park on the afternoon of July 3 and 4, on their way around the track already famous throughout the country, it will be something more than a horse race. It will be a revival of the sport that in days gone by has brought to Pleasanton thousands of men and women who loved horses and who followed the careers of the noble animals with an interest born of a great love for the sport.

Once more the tracks will echo with the shouts of the multitude as the vari-colored dressed jockeys urge their animals to greater speed and the clang of the bell on the judge's stand will be the signal for silence while the announcer proclaims to those present the winners of the contests.

Many of the most famous race horses that the past quarter of a century has produced were bred and trained at the Pleasanton race track. Horsemen throughout the land are agreed that the climate of Pleasanton, its water and its hay all combine to make this section of the state an ideal place to raise race horses.

Situated but an hour's drive from the metropolitan cities of the bay region, and within but a few hours' ride of central California cities, the sports lover has within easy access a place where he may enjoy himself. Roads leading to the valley are paved, there are no heavy grades and a trip to Pleasanton from almost any point is in itself a pleasure.

But race horses are not the only thing Pleasanton produces. Fruits, vegetables, grapes and dairy produce are among the most prominent products. The Meadowlark dairy, situated a few miles from Pleasanton is the only dairy in Alameda county producing certified milk. This milk is in great demand by physicians, hospitals and sanitariums. Other dairies ship raw milk to the bay cities where it is pasturized.

Every fall thousands of crates of tomatoes are shipped from local packing houses to the Eastern markets. Shipments of lettuce and asparagus are also made.

Among the industrial concerns in the valley are several gravel plants, whose product is shipped to make roads and buildings throughout the state.

A fine climate the year 'round attracts many homeseekers to Pleasanton.

CEMENT POURED BY HETCHY MEN ERUPTS

While the workers of the Hetchy camp, near Mission, were busy trying to fill a twenty-four foot hole in the tunnel with cement, they had no idea that their efforts were in vain.

Mrs. M. Rogers was first to discover the eruption. She immediately called Mr. Telles, who notified the workers.

FITTING HONORS TO THE HORSE

It is indeed fitting that Pleasanton, the home of the thoroughbred, should honor the horse with a three-day celebration. In today's fast moving melée of automobiles and airplanes, humanity is prone to forget that grand and glorious animal, the horse. No other animal has done as much for mankind, and especially the Westerner, as has the horse.

The Amador Valley has for many years been known throughout the world for the excellence of the horses raised. Thoroughbreds all, these animals have been one of Pleasanton's greatest advertising features. Today we find the stables of many of the nation's leading horse lovers located in the Amador Valley, trained by men of this locality, fed on the wonderful hay and grass raised in the valley, and always a source of inspiration to the horsemen of this county.

Not only does the Amador Valley boast of blue ribbon race horses, but the valley produces horses of every type. Giant work and draft horses, trick horses, truck horses, ponies and saddle horses—all have their place in the Amador Valley.

Each and every type will be displayed at the Pleasanton celebration, July 2, 3 and 4.

SWING WITHDRAWS FROM CONTEST FOR U. S. SENATE POST

Disapproves of Party's Stand on Liquor and Economic Relief

The following statement was received by the Register this week from Congressman Phil D. Swing announcing that he will not run for United States senator as had been expected:

"I shall not file for United States senator. I have never desired merely to hold office. I did not go to congress because of political ambition, but to do a definite job, that of putting over the Boulder Dam project. With that object accomplished by the enactment of the Swing-Johnson bill, with the work under way, with appropriations made by congress to keep construction going, I had planned to return to the practice of my profession. However, some of the leading citizens of southern California met last November and urged me to run for the senate, and I consented.

"It was my intention to make a fight for progressive principles, demanding that the federal government take aggressive and direct action to attack the grave economic problems which threaten our economic and political institutions. However, since that time the propaganda against prohibition has risen to greatly distract the attention of the people with its contention that repeal is the remedy for our present ills. My convictions are to the contrary. I am a Republican, but I cannot approve the wet-dry straddle plank of my party's platform. Neither can I approve its disavowal of federal responsibility for action to relieve the unemployment situation, nor its declaration restricting relief to palliative measures which do not go to the root or the cause of the present depression.

Furthermore, it became evident that without strong newspaper support in the big cities, a sizeable campaign fund is necessary no matter what the candidate's merit, ability, or record for ac-

CENTERVILLE CLUB WINS HIGH HONORS WITH MEMBERSHIP

Early History of Township Related at Past Week's Meet

An interesting and colorful address on the early history of California and Washington township was made before the meeting of the Centerville Lions' Club last Wednesday night by William McSorley, of Oakland.

The large audience present enjoyed the entertaining description the speaker gave of the events and early settlers in this territory. Judge Quinn, of Oakland, also delivered a brief address to the gathering. Both men were guests of Judge Allen G. Norris.

A committee consisting of Fred Rogers, chairman; Harold DeLeon, Chick Santos, Harry Elsey and A. M. Silva was appointed by President G. S. Holeman to select candidates for the election of new club officers to be held during the last meeting in July.

That the Centerville club has made an impressive record since its organization was evidenced by a communication read by Secretary Ira Hodkins at last week's meeting, from the national Lions Club headquarters. According to the report, Centerville is first in this district in membership and was second in the entire country. National fame could be won by the Centerville club if more members were obtained in the near future, the report suggested, and a free trip won for its delegates to the national convention to be held in Los Angeles.

CLUB GATHERS

The "500" club held its meeting with Miss Mamie Norris last week, with the usual pleasant time being enjoyed by everyone present. Mrs. D. Anderson captured first honors in card play, Mrs. L. Mathiesen, slams, and Mrs. K. Oakes, consolation. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Hyglund today.

PROPERTY OWNERS DEMAND BUDGET PUBLICATION

We wish to draw the attention of our readers to one of the resolutions recently adopted by the West Side Landowners' Association, of Dos Palos. This resolution is as follows:

"Resolved, that, for the purpose of better informing taxpayers as to expenditures of public funds, this organization demands of the county supervisors that all county warrants be published monthly in detail; that this organization demands of the school trustees of various school districts that all school warrants be published in detail monthly in a local paper."

This is a noteworthy thing. Landowners have come to see the importance of the publication in a newspaper of all public expenditures. They are aware of the fact that state school officials have for years fought giving the public the details of their expenditures. They have come to realize that the only way by which the public can check up on expenditures is through the publishing of these expenditures in detail.

The public had better face the issue. Some of our tax spending bodies have run wild. They have run wild because their spending has been in the dark. The facts have been kept from the public. The Landowners' Association knows that if public expenditures were given publicity in some manner easily understood by the people there would be much greater care given to the spending of public money. They are right. Light needs to be thrown on the secrets and the intricacies of the spending of public funds.

ATTEND CARD PARTY

Mrs. B. Hawley and Mrs. F. O. Bunting attended a card party given in honor of Mrs. Beard at the Hotel Whitcomb in San Francisco in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Helm. It was held in the roof garden and enjoyed much by all those present.

One of the most colorful and beautiful parades ever held will be seen in Pleasanton Monday morning, July 4, in connection with the First Annual Community Fourth of July Celebration to be sponsored by the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce on July 2, 3 and 4, according to Charles Graham, chairman of the parade committee.

Large beautiful floats entered by social and business organizations of Pleasanton will be seen in the elaborate parade. Attractively decorated autos, horses and jockies will be the procession.

The Happy Valley district, near Pleasanton, will have a section of its own sponsored by the Pleasanton Alisal Improvement Club. The club will enter a large float. Residents of the district will join the parade with decorated autos and others will be riding attractive ponies and saddle horses.

Miss Doris Grana, daughter of Mrs. Frances Grana, of Pleasanton, who will reign over the celebration as Goddess of Liberty, will ride in the parade in an elaborate float decorated by the Pleasanton Women's Improvement Club.

A number of bands, drum corps and drill teams will be in the procession. The Amador Valley high school band will lead the parade. The drum corps of Emeryville Veterans of Foreign Wars stated that it will take part in the parade. The Piedmont Parlor of Native Sons Band is expected to be present. A man drill team called the California Greys, of San Francisco, will take part in the parade. This team is considered one of the best teams on the Pacific Coast. The Mission San Jose Drill Team, made up of young girls under the direction of Hazel Mendoza, of Sunol, will be seen in action.

Livermore is expected to be represented in the parade one hundred per cent strong. The Livermore band and the Eagles Drum Corps will be in the Livermore section. A number of business and social organizations from Livermore have entered floats and autos in the parade. The Professional and Business Women's Club will be represented by a large membership riding some very attractive horses.

Everyone taking part in the Fourth of July parade will meet near the Southern Pacific depot where the parade will form at nine-thirty Monday morning. The parade will march from Angella street up Main street, down St. John street, and up St. Mary's street, back to Main street, down along Main street to Abbey street and back to Angella street where the parade will disband. No cars will be allowed to park on Main street, Graham stated. Everyone will be asked to park his car on St. John, Pleasanton avenue and St. Mary's streets. Those parking their cars in these streets will be able to see the entire parade from their cars because the entire parade will pass along that line of march.

Decorations Are Completed for
Big CelebrationCitizens Are Wearing Jockey
Caps at Jaunty
Angles

With the streets and business houses of Pleasanton all patriotically decorated with red, white and blue flags, the Pleasanton First Annual Fourth of July Celebration, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, ought to go over as an overwhelming success, as it is receiving a great deal of support from all the business houses and citizens of the community.

The town has a gala appearance. Main street is decorated from one end to the other. All the town merchants willingly co-operated in having their stores decorated with red, white and blue flags and banners.

With the citizens of Pleasanton wearing the attractive red, white and blue jockey caps on the streets, the festival appearance for the Pleasanton celebration is almost complete.

The finishing touches of the town's appearance will be completed during the latter part of next week, when the concessions of various sorts will be provided for by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Everything will be all ready to start off with a bang by Saturday afternoon.

Fifteen Acres of Feed Burn Near
Pleasanton CityBlaze Believed Started by Sparks From Train

The Pleasanton Fire Department was called out to extinguish a grass fire on the property belonging to Tony Ponaccio, about one mile from Pleasanton last Monday afternoon.

The fire started near the Southern Pacific tracks, which pass along the side of the property. According to reports received from a man who noticed the fire when it first broke out, a spark from a passing train was responsible for the conflagration. The dry state of the grass aided the rapid spread of the fire. Approximately fifteen acres of feed were burned before the fire could be extinguished.

About a year ago a fire on the same property destroyed a large acreage of pasture belonging to Ponaccio.

Decoto News

Mosquito Areas Are

The test was witnessed by members of the local abatement district and from other abatement districts in California. Faculty members of Stanford University, who are interested in this particular branch of work, also witnessed the experiment. It is reported Roland Bendel, of Decoto, is seriously considering taking flying lessons in order to keep up with the latest phase of the work with which he is connected.

NOTED JOCKEYS TO RUN HORSES

Jockeys who will see action in the race meet in connection with the Pleasanton Fourth of July celebration are principally Pleasanton lads. They are, nevertheless, thoroughly familiar with the job at hand.

Practically every one of them has ridden in races in nearly every corner of the United States, astride some of the best horses ever run. Every one of them will see plenty of service in the races Sunday and Monday afternoon, riding not only for their own stables, but for many others as well.

Attached to the stable of C. T. Boots is Elmer Neal, a capable lad who will probably see plenty of action over the week-end.

Another fine jockey is Charlie Cunz. He will ride for John McCollough in the races on Sunday and Monday.

Freddie Stevens will see action riding his own horses.

Two jockeys who were outstanding riders at one time are Eddie Teplin and Del Lawrence. Teplin will ride for Mrs. Rosencrank and Lawrence for Boots and Jack Marsh.

T. Manuel, C. Thompson and A. Everson, attached to no particular stable, will see action wherever they are needed, as will many of the other riders.

Fight Pictures Are Stated For Hayward Theatre

Joan Bennett and Zasu Pitts are starred in "The Trial of Vivienne Ware" at the Hayward theater, Friday and Saturday nights, July 1 and 2. A Laurel and Hardy comedy, "Music Box" also is on the program.

Sunday night only, July 3, a double bill is offered with Buck Jones appearing in "South of the Rio Grande," and Richardo Cortez and Irene Dunne featured in "Symphony of Six Millions."

For Monday, July 4, Warren Williams will be the attraction in "The Mouthpiece." There will be a continuous performance on July 4, beginning at 2 p. m. until 11.

Elissa Landi and Victor McLaglen are starred in "The Devil's Lottery" Tuesday night, July 5. China night, Wednesday and Thursday, July 6 and 7. Spencer Tracy is featured in "Sky Devils." Another attraction will be the official Sharkey-Schmeling fight pictures.

Grader and Water Wagon Working All Week

That the Pleasanton race track, scene of many famous race meets in by-gone days, has been put in first class condition for the revival of the "sport of the kings," which is to be held here in conjunction with the Fourth of July celebration, was the announcement made last week by Jerome Arendt, chairman of the general committee in charge of the celebration.

"The track," explained Arendt, "has been gone over with grader and water wagon, until horsemen who have tried it pronounce it to be one of the fastest tracks in the country."

Aside from the preparation of the track, adequate seating have been provided for in the form of bleachers loaned by the Stockmen's Protective Association, of Livermore. After committing several malicious pranks in and about Pleasanton, two runaway youths, who are said to be from San Francisco, were picked up by Constable Al Vervais in Pleasanton last Friday afternoon and were taken before a juvenile court Saturday morning, where they were charged with malicious mischief, according to Vervais.

PINS TO BE SOLD FOR OLYMPIC GAMES

America's victory on the Olympic Games fields in August will depend on the extent to which the public supports its team. All expenses for the training, equipment and traveling of the team will come from the public, and a national fund of $350,000 for this purpose is now being raised.

The California quota is to be secured through the sale of official fifty-cent Olympic pins, which has just been placed on sale at every Safeway store in the state, through arrangements made by Safeway executives.

Since the games are to be held in California, it is fitting that this section take the lead in the national drive to obtain funds to finance the athletes. No other participating country depends entirely on public support for this purpose, other nations subsidizing their teams in whole or in part with government funds.

The Safeway stores in California have taken 75,000 of the official emblems for sale to the public. Not one cent of profit is made for the firms selling these pins. The entire proceeds from their sale goes to the Olympic Games committee for necessary expenses.

MORE ON NILES CHAMBER

it was moved by the civic body to postpone action until their next meeting in September. The Wright act deals with the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment in the state of California.

Secretary A. J. Petsche was instructed to answer the invitation from the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce to participate in the Fourth of July celebration to be held in Pleasanton, thanking that body and assuring that individual members will participate as much as possible in the affair although the chamber will not be officially represented.

The chamber passed a motion to adjourn after Monday's meeting and not meet again until the second Monday in September.

RACES ALWAYS ATTRACT MANY

The sport loving American is always eager to witness any contest for supremacy. Yet nothing has ever created the enthusiasm in him that horse racing has.

The excitement, the crowd, the color and the horses always prove an irresistible magnet to the American public.

Pleasanton, in years gone by, was one of the greatest racing centers in the west. This year's celebration is bringing back the great sport to its rightful home. And from the crowd that will attend, it is felt certain that such a celebration will become an annual event.

FINEST HORSES ENTER EVENTS

Winners From All Tracks to Exhibit Speed at Pleasanton

Horses that have never raced, horses that are time tried veterans of the track, and horses of every gradient in between will vie with one another for speed honors on the Pleasanton race track Sunday and Monday afternoon in connection with the forthcoming Fourth of July celebration.

Whatever the differences in the records of the various horses competing in the races, they will all have one thing in common. Every one is a thoroughbred! It is this fact that has led many to name Pleasanton "The Home of the Thoroughbreds."

Rich Amador Valley, in which Pleasanton is located, has long been famous throughout the United States as the home of superb horseflesh. Horses bred and trained in Pleasanton have been winning records on every track in the country. Many well-known figures of the racing world have permanent stables in Pleasanton. And in the races this week-end will be afforded the opportunity of seeing many of the best horses in glorious action.

Bill Lane is but one of the many owners who train horses in Pleasanton. Of his probable entries, Boyd McGee is the most promising. This horse was a winner at Tanforan last winter.

Another horseman who will enter his best in the races is M. J. Hayes. War Luck and Easter Luck, both consistent performers, will undoubtedly be two of his entries.

Emeryville and Alowit are two horses to be seen in action from the stables of Jack Marsh. Emeryville was a prize winner at St. Louis last summer, while Alowit has had but one start so far. Sir Had is another of Marsh's horses that will very likely see action. He was a winner in New York last summer and has not raced yet this year.

C. T. Boots has four possible entries that look most promising. Forty Niner and Accordance are both consistent performers. Bridge of Peace emerged a winner at Reno last summer. Coalizer was a stake winner at the recent Tanforan meet.

Li Ki Pu, a winner and consistent performer, is a possible entry of John McCollough. La Florell, also a winner, is another promising horse attached to McCollough's stable.

Mrs. Alma Spreckels Rosen-crank will probably enter, through her trainer, Eddie Tepin, Phil K. a winner at Tanforan recently.

Kate A. and Eleanor M. are two Tanforan winners that will be a threat in any race. They are from the stable of Wm. Carroll.

Freddie Stevens has as a likely performer in the race meet Rufe McLain, a winner at Tanforan, and Anna May, also taking first at the recent Tanforan meet. Stevens paid $909 each in redeeming preferred options on Anna May following the race.

Mrs. Ted Horning has several horses in readiness for the week-end meet. Wiki Flame, a four-year-old chestnut gelding, will probably enter, along with Deposition, a seven-year-old brown gelding. Both these horses have been winners at Tanforan and Reno. Wiki Lilly, a three-year-old black filly, has never been run before and will probably run her maiden race over the week-end. Meadow Boy, a two-year-old winner at Caliente, and Bright Oaks, four-year-old handicap winner, will most likely start from the same stable. Ted Horning is the trainer of these promising racers.

Boots Darnell has at least three horses groomed for the meet. They are Spanish Jack, twice winner at Tanforan, and Ayeredy and Russene, both winners at Tanforan.

One of the best known horsemen in Pleasanton, Major Sven Christianson, has several horses in training for the meet. Among them are Fairy Melody, Tanforan winner, and Charming Home, winner at Del Monte and Tanforan.

Huddsfield, owned by Pete Towns, is being groomed for the races. This horse has won at Tanforan this last winter.

Las Palmas and Miss Vaccum are two of W. Crowell's horses

Live Wire Committees Have Plans Completed

splendid work of the track committee will bear fruit by the excellent show which will be put on at the track Sunday and Monday afternoons. The arrangement of the racing program and the expert selection of events in the horse show are direct results of this committee's activities.

Working with Johnson on the committee were:

Robert Cope, Louis Fuchs, Cliff Rosa, Tom Silva, Frank Garatti, Lee Wells.

As a subsidiary committee to the track committee was the horse show committee. This committee was headed by Mrs. Charlotte Anderson and working with her was Ernest Schween.

Peter Christesen, Advertising

A large measure of the success of the celebration must be laid at the door of the advertising committee. With Peter Christesen at its head, the committee has been constantly working for many long weeks, bringing news of the fiesta before the public of the San Francisco bay region.

The most novel feature of the advertising committee's program was the famous "advertising car" which has been touring the bay region. Painted all in white, it attracts the eye wherever it goes. Over its tonneau is a merry-go-round miniature race track, with cardboard horses that whirl unceasingly in the breeze. They are unusually realistic with their crouching jockeys straining forward over the outstretched necks of their mounts. Signs and pictures of all sorts of show and race horses tell the story of the celebration on July 2, 3 and 4. And to top the whole thing off, a pair of loud speakers, one on either side of the car, blare forth pertinent announcements of the celebration, the announcer being hidden from sight in the tonneau of the car. Phonograph records are interspersed with spoken announcements for variety.

Window cards, bumper strips, radio announcements and hat ribbons were more of the devices used to catch the public's notice. Tedious hours went into the preparation of news stories which have been mailed out by the committee to the generous newspapers of the bay region. All of these things helped make this committee's contribution to the success of the celebration.

Under Christesen on the committee were Andrew Jorgensen, John Bullene, Sam Elliott, Hans Jensen and Jack Williamson.

The dance and music committee was under the chairmanship of Andrew Greve. Under his leadership both street dances, the one scheduled for Saturday night and the second for Sunday night, that are likely to see action. Both are Tanforan winners.

Sunny Wells, a six-year-old, owned by Clyde Davis and trained by J. H. Sampson, will very likely run. This consistent performer placed at Tia Juana last winter.

The races at the Pleasanton track Sunday and Monday will vary in distance from four furlongs to one and one-sixteenth miles.

were prepared for. Music for both these dances came under the line of his duties.

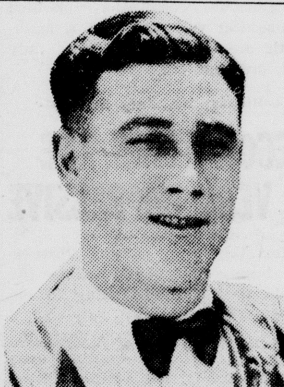

This indispensable committee was composed of, besides Greve, William Brener, Sam Paskewitz, Kenneth Cake, Ed Orloff, E. P. Knoles, Clyde Potvin, Jimmie Trimmingham, Manuel Oliveira, Peter Koopman and Sam Elliott.

John J. Amaral, chairman of the decoration committee, had no little job on his hands. The decorating of the town streets and the store fronts was made possible through the efforts of his committee. On the committee with him were Ray Martin and Frank Trimmingham.

Probably one of the biggest jobs of the whole celebration was that of Charles Graham as chairman of the parade committee. With two parades on his hands he has been a busy man the last few weeks.

He enlisted the services of Mrs. Hugo Radbruch and Mrs. S. E. Huddleston in arranging for the kiddies' parade which is to be seen early Saturday evening. Under their capable direction this difficult and novel part of the celebration has been prepared for so that it will go off without the slightest hitch. The ladies have arranged to march the kiddies in four divisions, namely: the mounted, wheel, walking (with or without pets), and group.

Under Graham's personal supervision, the Fourth of July parade on Monday morning promises to be the biggest ever held in Pleasanton. The most optimistic of enthusiasts promise that it will stretch twice the length of Main street. Graham and his committee have done wonders in getting Pleasanton's organizations and business men to turn out practically 100 per cent with floats or autos. Livermore is expected to send a large delegation to take part in the line of march, with many beautiful floats and exhibits. Banks, drill teams, drum corps, and other military drilled bodies will lend snap to the parade.

On Graham's committee are Bruce Pickard, John J. Amaral and Ernest Schween.

The work of another committee must not be forgotten, and undoubtedly will not be by those who attend the entertainment at the track. That is the refreshment committee, headed by Crawford Letham. Letham has spared no effort to provide the very best in good things to eat for the enjoyment of the spectators at the track. Included in the menu of eatables to be at the track will be ice cream, soda pop, and hot dogs.

With Letham on his committee are Jack Bullene, Manuel Oliveira and Harold Arendt.

Last, but not least, comes the finance committee. Probably the most important committee of the lot and receiving less notice than any other. This committee was made up of the board of directors of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Jerome Arendt, general chairman of the celebration.

It was this committee's duty to regulate all expenditures, lay out a budget that would amply take care of all requirements, and take over the financial responsibilities of the entire event. And if that isn't a big job, what is?

The junior's board of directors is made up of the following: Andrew M. Greve, John J. Amaral, John Ruppel, William F. Hall, Andrew L. Jorgensen, Samuel D. Glassey and Peter Christesen.

IN FINE SHAPE

Always one of the best race tracks in the United States, a month's hard work has put the track in the best condition of its long and glamorous career. A crew of men have been laboring diligently to assure a speedy track and have left nothing to be desired in the way of a first class speedway for the horses.

Renews Feature

This year's races will renew one of southern Alameda county's most colorful events, and the committee in charge has painstakingly developed the track to the finest point it has ever enjoyed.

Track Mile Long

The race track is oval and is a mile around. Inside the mile track is another, a half mile long, but the shorter track will not be used this year in the racing events. One of the best features of the Pleasanton track is the fact that it has the finest drainage system in the country. The miring of horses in the mud is unknown on this track, and as a consequence, owners of high class animals are not fearful of entering their speed burners in the Pleasanton races.

To Accommodate Crowd

Arrangements have been made for the seating of over three thousand people for the horse events, and from every indication the seats will all be taken. The "King's Sport" has always been a great drawing card to the American people, and with a wonderfully fast track, the cream of the race horses of the west, and a glorious celebration planned Pleasanton will entertain a mammoth crowd for three days, July 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

—Pleasanton, July 2-3-4—

VERY IMPRESSIVE

For the past month, Pleasanton has proudly been telling the world that she was going to entertain in a big way, July 2, 3 and 4. One of the prettiest displays of flags and bunting ever draping a city, has clothed Pleasanton in gala array.

Arranged and put up by Warren Brothers Decorating Company of Fresno, the display has attracted much attention by all who have been in town. The usual faded flags and bunting, so often the lot of the smaller town have been totally lacking in Pleasanton, and the town, as well as the decorations have reason to feel proud of their dress.

Three Streets Flagged

The entire length of Main street is arrayed with beautiful flags dropping from overhead. Profuse shade trees form a fine background for the gay colors of the flags. Branching off Main street, two of the side streets have also assumed the enticing holiday garb.

Stores Don Colors

Adding to the beauty of the overhanging flags, the stores of Pleasanton have all taken on a dress of the national colors. Designs of all kinds have been

NILES CANYON
ROAD OFFERS
SCENIC TRIP

In driving to Pleasanton to attend the big celebration, July 2, 3 and 4, visitors should plan to go through Niles Canyon at least once, if at all possible. This beautiful drive is one of the most popular in the East Bay district, and at this time of the year the canyon is at its best.

Following closely to the bank of the river, the road winds through this beautiful gorge in one of nature's most inspiring pieces of architecture. The walls on either side rise to precipitous heights, and beautiful trees and flowers cover the hillside. The rippling river with its inviting shady pools is ever a source of intrigue, and one eagerly awaits the new pictures that unfold around each turn.

Picnic Spots Plentiful

Dotting the river, one after another, are beautiful picnic spots, where the family can enjoy lunch, a swim and a few hours rest in the abundant shade of overhanging trees. Tables, benches, and out door stoves are easily available, and if one finds the canyon irresistible, camping facilities for the night may be obtained at minimum cost.

How To Go

In driving from Oakland or Hayward, drive south to Niles, leaving the main highway at this point and following the canyon road. The road, recently repaired, is in excellent shape, and driving is perfectly safe with a grade so slight that it is not noticeable.

Follow the canyon road up through the town of Sunol, turning to the left as you leave the town, up past the Castlewood Country Club and into Pleasanton.

From Oakland it is a very easy trip, and one will find every minute of it a source of pleasure and delight, as well as inspiring in the grandeur of the country.

—Pleasanton, July 2-3-4—

worked out for the individual stores, and each one is deserving of much praise for the selections made. Not only have the merchants entered into the spirit of the celebration, but many of the homes are displaying flags and bunting in honor of the fiesta.

Teach Object Lesson

To leaders of other communities, Pleasanton is showing how to put on a big event. The whole hearted cooperation and enthusiasm expended by the people of Pleasanton is an object lesson that could well be learned by other towns planning such celebrations.

BIG JULY CELEBRATION

An explanation of what the junior chamber had already done, of its interviews with horse breeders, of its conferences with the race track managers, of its many tentative preparations showed that the foundation was present; and so the enterprise was begun.

To the townspeople of Pleasanton must go the credit for putting over the three day celebration. Credit is due all those men and women of the community who have worked so hard and so faithfully on committees and sub-committees connected with the affair. Not to be forgotten are the members of clubs and organizations who have co-operated in preparing parade floats and in numerous other ways with those directing phases of the preparations. And to the whole town must go praise for the one hundred per cent boosting and willing-to-work spirit that has been prevalent throughout the preparations.

To the juniors must go the credit for starting the ball rolling toward the realization of the glorious celebration which will start in Pleasanton Saturday.

The Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce came into being on the evening of Monday, July 20, 1931. The organization was formed by and for the young business men of the city for the prime purpose of promoting civic betterment through whole-hearted co-operation.

With the exception of its secretary, the organization's officers are the same as when it was formed one year ago. Charter officers were Andrew M. Greve, president, John J. Amaral, vice president, Lloyd H. Rhodes, secretary, William F. Hall, treasurer, and Andrew L. Jorgensen, Samuel D. Glassey and Peter Christesen, directors. Since the time of its organization, the first secretary, Lloyd Rhodes, has moved to Modesto. In his place is John Ruppel, one of the charter members of the civic body.

Twenty-one members were on the roster of the chamber at its birth and since then its membership has grown by leaps and bounds.

During the first year of its organization, the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce has several accomplishments to feel proud of. Probably principal among these, outside of the present celebration, was the chamber's successful handling of last fall's Red Cross drive in Pleasanton.

The junior chamber took over the direction of the campaign, which started on Armistice Day and lasted until Thanksgiving. The body showed rare organizational ability in its handling of the campaign. The territory was divided into sections and each section was canvassed either by a team of juniors or by members of some other organization, whose aid the juniors had enlisted. As a result the campaign for the Red Cross last year went over the top stronger than it had in Pleasanton for many years previous. The record is one the juniors are proud of.
